TEATRO DE LA LUNA invites all poetry lovers to participate in this series of workshops called “POETRY and EXILE.” In this series we will study and interpret poems written by very well known poets from Colombia, Perú, Ecuador, Bolivia and Paraguay, who suffered exile. This series of Poetry Interpretation Workshops are part of the 2022-2023 season offered to people 16 and older who wish to deepen their knowledge of poetry and interpretation.

The workshops are being conducted virtually by Teatro de la Luna director Mario Marcel, with the assistance of Marcela Ferlito, Mariano Lucioni and Pablo Guillén on ZOOM. These eight sessions are scheduled on Thursdays from 7:00pm-9:00pm starting July 21 through September 8 with the final presentation on the eighth session September 8 at 7:00 pm which will be transmitted live for free on www.teatrodelaluna.org ; YouTube and Facebook Live.

Registration is open. Cost of the Series: $100. FREE for DC residents thanks to the Office on Latino Affairs – MOLA and the DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities.

Teatro de la Luna, founded in 1991, produces performing arts and other events that celebrate Latin American culture and seek to connect Spanish-speaking and English-speaking communities. La Luna has been recognized for its cultural contributions on several occasions. Teatro de la Luna Director Mario Marcel received the Elizabeth Campbell Award for advancement of the arts from the American Association of University Women’s Arlington Chapter. On two occasions, La Luna was honored with the STAR prize from the Arlington County Commission for the Arts for its administrative excellence and service to the community; In 2017, received the “Working for the Community” award from NBC4. La Luna Producer Nucky Walder received the Latina Woman Leadership 2009 award and the 2018 Lifetime Achievement Award from DC Mayor Muriel Bowser through the Office of Latino Affairs (MOLA). In 2020, Teatro de la Luna was interviewed by Channel 7 WJLA and most recently in 2021 by Telemundo-Channel 64.
