TEATRO DE LA LUNA announces “GO”

Teatro de la Luna is pleased to kick off 2026 with “GO” a physical theatre-pantomime show. An exquisite gift for those who enjoy artistic expression even without words. Physical - gesture theatre performed by actors-mimes Pablo Guillen and Rodin Alcerro. The production runs January 30 through February 8 on Fridays and Saturdays at 8pm, and Sundays, at 4:00 pm at Casa de la Luna.

About the performance: What happens when two individuals get up on a stage? What happens when we transform poetry into movement? GO, a story without words, where two individuals meet...or maybe destiny put them in each other’s paths...

About the performers: Pablo Guillén and Rodin Alcerro have dedicated their lives to the theatre in their native Honduras and elsewhere. Today they enchant us with this piece of their own creation. The play was acclaimed by audiences and the press in the DC Fringe Festival last summer. Pablo Guillén has participated as an actor, instructor and director in various Teatro de la Luna productions, both for children and adults. He has also graced the stage of GALA Hispanic Theatre in Washington DC Rodin Ruíz made his Teatro de la Luna debut at the Children’s Theatre Festival at Casa de la Luna, participating also in Play readings and has also performed in children’s theater plays with Teatro La Bolsa and GALA Hispanic Theater. Guillén and Alcerro also performed at Synetic Theatre in Arlington, VA.

CASA DE LA LUNA is conveniently located at 4020 Georgia Ave., NW in Washington, DC, street free parking and close to Georgia Av.-Petworth Metro Station (Green & Yellow Lines.) A complimentary glass of wine can be enjoyed.
